USE KYANIZE

For your Floors, interior woodwork, and all pieces of Furniture this Finish cannot be excelled.

It dries quickly, and gives a hard finish.

It will not chip, crack, or mar white, and is sanitary

You need never stir KYANIZE, as you will find it the same at the bottom as at the top.
For this reason, you never get two shades as in the ordinary Varnish Stain.

Anybody can use it, as it will spread evenly, and will never show the lap or brush mark no matter how you apply it.

Remember this Finish is absolutely guaranteed.
Every can you purchase carries with it the guarantee of the Makers. If it does not do all we claim, return it, and your money will be refunded.

We will very soon be giving you a sample can of Kyanize, with a brush to apply it. We are doing this for YOUR satisfaction.

We have the full line of Stains, for your inspection. Look them over carefully, as they are worth a few moments of your time.

Come in, and let us demonstrate to you what KYANIZE will do.

Agricultural Fair and Sports Day At Alask

RECORD CROWD ATTENDED

On Tuesday last, Alask held its annual agricultural fair and sports day. After dull and threatening weather during the early hours of the morning, the sun shone out brightly and ideal conditions prevailed throughout the day. A large and varied programme kept the spectators interested till dusk, and some interesting finishes were witnessed in the various events. An open air bovery dance attracted a fair crowd at night, but did not prove so popular as the dance held in the Masonic Hall. Those present at the dance in the Masonic Hall were disappointed when the dance was brought to a close at 2 a.m. and the arrangements for supper were not altogether satisfactory.

The new grounds owned by the agricultural society, are a great credit to that organization. The grandstand provides an excellent point of vantage from which the spectators may watch the horse races, but it is too far away from the baseball and football grounds.

In the various horse racing events entries were received from Saskatoon and other outlying points, and some fast races were witnessed.

Empress won the final game in the football tournament, and Brock won the final game in the baseball tournament. The Oyen baseball team played great ball in their first game against Marengo, and won out in the last inning after a strenuous uphill fight by a score of 5 to 1. In the final game against Brock they did not play their usual game and had to be content with second money.

The agricultural exhibits and stock judging proved of great interest and the day is considered by those who attended to be the best ever held in the town.

Oyen Wins Tournament At Marengo

Defeat Marengo Three Consecutive Games This Season.

After spending the night in Alask, the Oyen ball team left yesterday to take part in the tournament at Marengo, when they were accompanied by a few ardent supporters who more than made up for their lack in numbers by their absolute confidence in the team's ability to carry off the first money.

H. E. King's enthusiasm and unshaken belief in the team seemed to make a marked difference in their play. Four men were entered in the tournament, Oyen being drawn to play Loverna, while Brock were pitted against Marengo.

In the first game, Oyen simply smothered their opponents by a score of 19 to 4. Comments on the game are hardly necessary. The whole team played exceptional ball. The Oyen team lined up as follows—

Long-Lived Grass.
When not needed for Christmas feasting grass will live in a great way some few years ago writes "G. M." in The Field. I once wrote a very valuable grass (moss or fern) which was not a grass. It was found in England, in an unrecorded circumstance. I was walking from Miln-thorpe to Ards, and at Miln-thorpe an acquaintance sitting on a bench, looking at a pet sheep with his eyes steeped in sleep.
He told me that this grass had been in his family for over forty years, and was partial to beer, stout, and even wine. When he was a boy he was of the longevity of years with the grass. It was found in the same in an old book entitled "Travel in Scotland," by Rev. James Hall M.A.
On a visit to a Mr. Charles Grant, a Bishop, Stirlingshire, the author was informed of a man, that had been killed by accident after living at the same place for "above eighty years," and for fifty of those years it had been with only one female.

He Was Coming Back.
A story is told in connection with the recent strike in Manchester. A certain boy was not credited with being particularly smart, but as he matter was urgent and nobody was available the boy was sent to send him with the message. I goes to try to pass through the doors. When he reached the door of the first he was told to "get back to the office."
"Well," he said, "I am going back but I won't let me through at the other end."
So they let him through, and the boys were delivered.

Just the Same.
David Bigham, the famous singer, when crossing the Atlantic, once got into conversation with a ship's harbor. "I hope," said the harbor, "that you will be the pleasure of sailing on at the concert tonight."
"I replied," said the singer, "I am just leaving a long and exhausting tour and, within a few days I am to go to London. I have decided not to do anything on the voyage."
"It's the same way with me," said the harbor, sympathetically. "When I've scored I never looks at a razor!"

BY WAY OF PEDAGOGY.

School Teachers Have a Better Chance For Statesmen's Jobs.

No statesman has made a stronger mark for himself in the history of Great Britain than the present Prime Minister, Mr. Balfour, whose views may be with regard to the Prime Minister's policy towards the House of Lords it cannot be denied that in the face of all that appeared temerarious in most of his predecessors in office he has been successful in bringing about the most revolutionary change that has taken place in the written and unwritten constitution of England since 1801, when James II. was deposed and the throne of the country secured.

It may be, therefore, of timely interest to recall that Mr. Asquith acquired his habits of mastery over his ministerial colleagues and over the members of the Liberal Party (except of course, the Irish) as a school teacher.
His father was far from being an and, destined him to a commercial career, sent him to the City of London School, where he distinguished himself as a scholar, but not as a scholarship. That is to say, he secured no taste whatsoever for the sports and games of the institution. He carried off, however, all the school prizes, including an Oxford University School-ship, and entering Balliol College, from which so many men of note have been graduated. Balfour was one of the most brilliant lights, and one of the brightest particular stars of Dr. Jowett, the famous master, achieving a degree of prestige among his fellow students which eventually led to his election him president of the celebrated debating club known as the Union.

Having thus made his mark at Oxford, he returned to London to study for the Bar. The regular course extends over a period of three years, and throughout this time, however, the small means of his own, he earned his living as an assistant master at his old school, that of the City of London. It was not until some time after receiving his "call" in 1896, when he succeeded in establishing a legal practice sufficient to keep body and soul together, that he gave up his teaching. These few years of masterly leadership at the City of London School have proved of inestimable value to Mr. Asquith.
Evidence of the practical acceptance of this view may be obtained by a glance across Europe, where schoolmasters are to be found occupying as many of the high offices of the Government of their country that one is led to the belief that the pedagogic desk is, after all, perhaps the most advantageous vantage-point for the political prebend, and that teaching boys furnishes the best training for Cabinet office.

An Expensive Error.
One summer some few years ago, I paid a visit to South Shore, Lancashire, to join the "miles," who had proceeded there a few days previously. Thinking, however, that a pleasant surprise I had not expected of my coming. On my arrival I made for the beach, being in expectation that I should find a great when I called here in the distance sitting on the sand with her back to me. Approaching stealthily I threw my arm suddenly around her neck and imprinted a passionate kiss on her cheek. A moment later I saw her. Oh, horror! I had made a terrible blunder. It was not my wife. The woman that caused baffles descriptions. I believe it to say my sister. I was very much shocked by the impact of the indignant lady's smile, and a glowing memory of me off to make under the recreation of Sunday. I remember, however, who had caused it. Next day I was brought before the "bench," and after being severely reprimanded, was fined three guineas and costs of 14 days imprisonment. "Look better before you do better."

Double Wedding

Gulleksen-Manck.
Gulleksen-Thayer

A double wedding took place at the residence of the Rev.
Westfall, near Cereal, on the 8th inst. when Mr. S. B. Gulleksen was married to Miss Jessie Winifred Manck and Mr. Arthur Gulleksen was married to Miss Cora Thayer.

Both brides and grooms resided in Excel, where they have a wide circle of friends. They are well known in Oyen and esteemed by all who know them.

Helmsdale Items

Recent rainfalls have considerably improved the crops in this district and many of the farmers contemplate increasing their twine order.

Miss S. Dorman, of Hamilton, Ont., daughter of Mr. Samuel Dorman, who is well known in this part of the country as a Water Locomotive, is here on a visit with Miss Ames.

Mrs. W. J. MacKay is here on a second visit from Ontario, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs.
James Beaton, of Elbow, Sask.

As a result of a successful fall and winter season at well drilling, Mr. W. Gilmore is at home for the summer and is devoting his whole time to his farm.

Amendment to Laws Of Association Football

At a recent meeting of the International Football Association board, held in Paris, several alterations were made in the laws of the game—laws that immediately come into force. The con-trivency concerning law 7 is at an end, and for all place kicks and free-kicks opponents are not allowed within ten yards of a ball until it is kicked off.

By the insertion of the word "striking" after "kicking" in law 9 the offence of hitting a player with the hand clearly becomes a football crime punishable by a penalty-kick, and a very proper decision, too.

In future a player who is injured during a match must be at once removed from the field of play and the game resumed, but we do not see how a sentence complete in itself is to be inserted in rule 13 after the word "causes" in line sixteen.

When the referee has to restart the game owing to any temporary suspension he must not throw the ball down. He must "drop it."

The proposal of the Scottish F.A. to alter the off side law was not accepted, and so the game will continue under the old well-tried system.

The parties responsible for the article in the Borderline Budget in which it is claimed that the Sounding Creek football team got a rather raw deal here on Sports Day have adopted a peculiar line of reasoning.
The first game with Oyen was played on account of rain, and had it been started it could not have been finished on this account. Instead of splitting the five prizes equally, which was the correct thing to do, the Creek team were given twenty dollars towards their expenses and the remaining eighty dollars was divided between the two teams.

To be accused of a raw deal under the circumstances is simply hilarious.

Do you want a First Class Calf As a Premium?

At Sandon View Farm Mr. Whitlock has a splendid Shorthorn and Ayrshire calf growing up. We are going to give this calf away on the following conditions on August 6th.
On July 6th, we will take a bunch of shingles from the pile, and securely box it so that no access may be had to it in the interval.
With every purchase you will receive a bill which is numbered. For each five dollars of your purchase for cash you will be entitled to a guess at the number of shingles in the bunch.
For each Ten Dollars paid on account, or on your note you will be entitled to a guess, or for the payment in full of any account, which does not amount to Ten Dollars. Your guess will be marked on the back of the bill you get.
The person guessing the correct number of shingles which are in the bunch, which will be counted on August 6th, will get the calf. In event of more than one absolutely correct guess the first shingle, having correct guess will be the lucky winner of the calf.

Baseball Notes

Charley Dalton was in great form yesterday, sending out two home runs as well as hitting superb ball.

Poor Marenco. Thirsty straight must be an awful blow.

And Brown? Whatever will the Quakers think?

Free got back into old time form again in the final game yesterday and showed up well at bat.

Joe Quinn swung a handy bat too. He made a fine three bagger among his numerous hits.

It was too bad that "Ty Cobb" (Charbonneau) could not attend. His work with the bat would have furnished the scores some more. (Did someone say don't be hogfish?)

Dunnings, Glesser and Foster all played nice ball. Each man deserves a share of the credit for victory.

Stun. Cunningham is a useful man on any team.

Anything within ten feet of first is good enough for Desso. He'll pull 'em down out of the sky.

A Bad game was played this afternoon between the Married men and Single men of town, in which the regular players were excluded. At the end of the end of the fifth inning the score stood 18-16 in favour of the Married men, when the game was called for supper. Another game will be played to-night.

Local Men Make Long Trip in Automobile

A party of local business men which included Messrs. P. H. Peterson, P. Desford, Charles Wilson, A. Owens and H. C. Westby, left town at noon last Saturday in the former gentleman's car for Edmonton. The trip was made via Alask and Lovrina and continued north to the C.V.E. line. Here the party turned west, and after a stop at Strom and Camrose arrived at Edmonton on Monday morning.

Leaving the car in Edmonton the party went up to the chd of the steel on the Athabasca Landing line.

The return trip was made via Coronation and Youngtown. Just before arriving at the latter town a delay was caused by a blow-out, the only accident experienced on the trip. The party arrived in town at 11 p.m. last night.

THE CROPS.

Reports from local points give the impression that the crops are not quite as bad as they are made out to be. In some cases farmers are plowing up the land sown this spring, and while the general outlook is very poor indeed there are still some crops left which look pretty fair. A sample brought into the office today stood over four feet in height looked good.

OYEN WINS BASEBALL TOURNAMENT AT MARENGO.

1st.	Quinn

7th.	Dunnings

The score by innings:
Oyen 4 0 2 1 0 0 0 19
Loverin 0 2 0 0 0 0 0 4

A sensational finish was witnessed in the second game played between Marenco and Oyen. At the end of the fourth Fisher the Brock pitcher, retired from the box with the game practically won, the score standing 12-4 in his team's favour. Marenco got after his substitute however and batted him all over the lot for nine runs winning out in the last innings by 13-12. This left Marenco and Oyen in the final.

In the final game Brown, of the Saskatoon Quakers failed to pitch a winning game for Marenco.

The Oyen boys hit him freely and scored 13 runs. Dalton pitched in old time form and held his opponents to one run till the last inning when he eased up and let them score three runs. This made Oyen's third consecutive win against Marenco this year. Oyen played the same nine in both games, just making a slight change in their positions for the second game.

The line up for the final was follows:

1st.	Dalton
2nd.	Quinn
3rd.	Desso
4th.	Foster
5th.	Cunningham
6th.	McDonald
7th.	Dunnings
8th.	Glesser

The score by innings:
Oyen 2 0 1 3 0 0 7 13
Marenco 0 1 0 0 0 0 3
